"OVER TOP" WITH PLENTY TO SPARE

NODAWAY MAKES GOOD HER
SHARE OF Y. M. C. A. FUND.

EXPECT TO GET $15,000 BEFORE DRIVE ENDS

Every Township But Two Has Raised
Full Quota With Several Giving
More—Atchison Over.

The people of Maryville and Nodaway county can do things when they have decided that they must be done. The quota of $10,750 of the Y. M. C. A. fund has been oversubscribed about $5,000, the total amount reported to Henry Wright, campaign manager and treasurer of the fund being in excess of $14,000, with workers still soliciting subscriptions. The patriotic meeting this afternoon of farmers of Polk township at the court house, is expected to add at least $1,000 more to the fund. Every township in the county but two have raised all of their quota, and some of them have exceeded the amount.

Polk township, with Maryville, has subscribed over $5,000 to the fund, their quota being $2,900, and there is yet more to be added before the campaign closes tonight.

In the Other Townships.

Union township, with a quota of $500, has raised $800.

Atchison ($600), Grant ($550), Hughes ($600) and Washington ($400) have each raised their full quota.

Green township, quota $400, has raised $433.

Hopkins township, with a quota of $750, has raised $1,000.

Monroe, with a quota of $600, has raised $650.

Jackson, with a quota of $750, has raised $850.

Lincoln, with a quota of $700, has $1,000 pledged.

Nodaway, with a quota of $750, has reported $900 raised.

White Cloud, with a quota of $500, has given $1,000.

Independence, with a quota of $500, reported today that $150 of the amount had been pledged and that work was being continued.

Jefferson township, with a quota of $150, is just getting started. Workers there are confident of getting the amount.

Atchison Raised More Than Quota.

A report made by District Chairman Geo. B. Baker, shows that Atchison county has oversubscribed its quota of $4,000, raising $6,000 for the fund.

Worth county reports $2,000 of its quota of $2,500, having been raised and more to come.

The campaign in Gentry county was slow in getting started and will be continued next week.

Subscribers to the fund in Maryville and Polk township, as shown by the treasurer's books, are as follows:

The list follows:

T. M. C. A. Honor List.

These have given $250: Russell I. Bilby (credit to Green township).

These have given $100, with an additional $100 pledged: Dr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Bell, C. D. Bellows, S. G. Gilliam, J. B. Robinson, E. L. and F. M. Townsend.

Several hundred persons will be in Maryville by Monday night for the Missouri State Sunday School Convention and by Tuesday there will be nearly a thousand here.

These visitors will spend considerable money in our city. Nearly all will get to read the Democrat-Forum; so take your message to them. Have your advertising copy ready early Monday morning for Monday's issue so that we can properly handle it.

"WIPE UP" ON HUNS

GOV. GARDNER'S SON EYE WIT-NESS TO FIGHTING.

LETTER TO HIS FATHER

Tells of Attack on Oct. 24—Kaiser's Prize Fighters No Match for the Americans.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 17. — An eye witness story of the great fighting on the Aisne is told by William K. Gardner, 19 year old son of Governor Gardner, in a letter to his father.

He has been in the ambulance service in France since the first landing of American troops and is coming home to join the aviation corps, he notified his father.

"You probably read of the brilliant attack just launched in the Aisne region," he wrote in his letter dated October 24. "The attack came off the 24th. I was there. Maybe we didn't see something. Our wonderful division just wiped up on three picked divisions in the Prussian guard the Kaiser's prize fighters.

"German prisoners have been passing by the thousands. The latest count I know of was 75,000. The morning after the charge we certainly had our hands full as the roads were covered with wounded, mostly Germans. We are expecting a counter attack at any time. The Germans started one this morning, but it fizzled."

AN ORCHESTRAL CONCERT

Instead of the Band on Sunday Afternoon, Director Maulding Offers Stringed Instruments.

Instead of the usual band concert Sunday afternoon Director Maulding has arranged something different for tomorrow—an orchestral concert—in which fifteen of Maryville's best musicians will be heard in a program of more than usual merit.

In addition to the orchestral numbers Miss Bess Scott will sing, and a guitar and mandolin duet by Ed Schumacher and Oliver Oldard will prove interesting. The concert at the Empire theatre begins at 3 o'clock.

The complete program follows:

March—"Queen of the Fleet"—(Crosby).

Overture—"Sincerity"—(Barnard).

Medley One Step—"My Mother's Rosary"—(Schulz).

Medley Selection—"Days of Old"—(Carlton).

Vocal Solo—Selected—by Miss Bess Scott.

Medley Two Step—"Joan of Arc"—(Wells).

Duett—Guitar and Mandolin—"Jazz Medley"—by Ed Schumacher and Oliver Oldard.

Fox Trot—"The Murray Walk"—(Klickmann).

Star Spangled Banner.

Funeral of Mrs. Spurgeon.

Funeral services for Mrs. George Spurgeon, who died yesterday afternoon at her home on East Fourth St., will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the First Methodist church, conducted by the Rev. C. R. Green, pastor of the Harmony church. Burial will be in the Miriam cemetery.

Funeral of Stanley Evans.

Funeral services for Stanley Evans who died Thursday morning at St. Joseph, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Methodist church at Burlington Junction. Burial was in the Ohio cemetery.

THREE BUSY DAYS

MARYVILLE WILL ENTERTAIN
ITS BIGGEST CONVENTION.

SOME SPECIAL FEATURES

Besides the General and Conference
Sessions There Will be Banquets and Receptions—All Ready.

Three days of next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Maryville will be crowded with visitors, delegates to the 52nd annual convention of the Missouri State Sunday School Association. It will be the biggest gathering the city has ever undertaken to care for, a conservative estimate having placed the number of visitors at 1,900. Maryville is going to have her hands full, but there has been no hitch in the plans and there is every promise of a most successful convention.

This morning's express brought a number of packages containing exhibits from various Sunday schools in the state. The exhibits department will be one of the features of the convention and will represent a wide range of work being done. They are in charge of Dan R. Baker, and will be arranged in the basement of the First M. E. church.

Besides the regular and conference sessions there will be a banquet on Tuesday night at the Presbyterian church given in honor of the college students who are delegates to the convention.

On Wednesday evening in the Martin building members of the First M. E. church will give a banquet in honor of Lake Geneva students and preparations are being made to entertain 200 students and visitors.

On Wednesday night at the Christian church parlors there will be given a "War Times" party at which Mrs. Harriet Edna Beard of St. Louis, superintendent of the elementary department will have something interesting to relate.

On Wednesday afternoon there will be a reception at the home of Mrs. J. E. O'Neal for Mrs. Nell G. Burger of Clark, Mo., state president of the W. C. T. U.

Paget at Christian Church.

Another feature of the convention will be the pageant by elementary pupils, "Santa's Loyal Allies," at the Christian church on Tuesday afternoon. The pageant will be directed by Mrs. Fred P. Robinson, and will be given on an elaborate scale.

There will be a meeting tomorrow afternoon at the Baptist church to arrange final details for all the committees in charge in order that each one may know the individual part he or she is to take.

Members of Troop I, Boy Scouts, will be on duty all day Tuesday at registration headquarters at the Baptist church to show delegates to rooms that will be assigned them and for such service as may be required.

A Registry Fee for All.

It is urged by the committee in charge that every person in Maryville who expects to attend any of the sessions of the convention register and pay the fee of $1.00 tomorrow, getting an admission badge at the church on Monday so that arriving delegates may not be delayed in getting registered and receive their credentials.

It is announced that no one, not even state secretary Bowman or President Danford will be admitted unless paying the registration fee. This is made necessary, it is explained, because of the crowds of curiosity seekers who would otherwise crowd the churches and interfere with the business of the convention.

COUNTRY HOME IS BURNED

Residence of Russell Holmes, Near Hopkins Destroyed by Fire
This Morning—Little Saved.

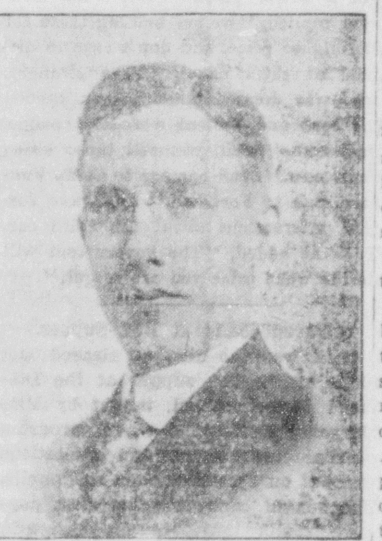

The large dwelling house belonging to Russell Holmes, and located about three miles north of Hopkins, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. The fire is thought to have started from a defective flue. Mr. Holmes was unable to save any of his household goods. A large amount of canned fruit, apples, potatoes and other foods stored away for winter use was also destroyed. A small insurance was carried on the property.

Mrs. Eva Davis returned this morning to her home in Bolekow after a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Alkire.

WILL HOLD UNION MEETING

Main Street, Buchanan Street and the Christian Churches in One Service Tomorrow Night.

An unusually interesting meeting is promised tomorrow night at the First M. E. church when there will be a union meeting, including the First Christian and the Buchanan street Methodist churches to hear Herman Bowmar, secretary of the Missouri State Sunday School Association, who is here in advance of the big convention next week to assume active charge of the work.

HERMAN BOWMAR

Mr. Bowmar, formerly a young St. Louis attorney, has gained a wide reputation in Sunday School work, and is a leader whose activities have merited the attention of the national organization. His enthusiasm in the work and his talent for organization and direction has resulted in Missouri taking a leading place among the states in Sunday school organization.

Mr. Bowmar will tell something of the work being done in the state and will outline the work of the convention, bringing to the people of Maryville a more intimate knowledge of what such a gathering means at this time. It is urged that as many as possible attend this service.

DOCTORS NAME COMMITTEE

Advisory Board Will Act in Co-operation With Local Draft Board—
No Action by Attorneys.

At a meeting last night of the physicians of the county in the offices of Dr. F. M. Ryan, a medical advisory board was chosen, composed of Drs. W. M. Wallis, Joel H. Todd and F. M. Martin. This board will work in co-operation with the local draft board and with the local legal advisory board, which will be formed, and will assist the draft board in matters where they may be called.

The lawyers have as yet taken no action on the call of President Stone of the state bar association, but it is expected that they too, will name a committee to give counsel with the local board in matters where legal advice is sought both by the board and by the men who are called in the draft.

The co-operation, both of the physicians and attorneys was asked as a patriotic duty by the government.

Must Care for War Brides.

Washington, Nov. 17. — America must care for the war brides. Information reaching here daily tells of many girls who are married to soldiers that are now suffering while their husbands are in service. The woman's bureau of the Red Cross is at work on the problem.

Had an Operation Performed.

Mrs. Lincoln Bent left today for Shenandoah, Iowa, where she will visit with Mr. Bent and her son, Guy Bent, where Mr. Bent has had an operation performed upon one of his limbs. He is at the home of his son and is reported greatly improved.

To St. Joseph to Visit.

Mrs. Glover Kelley went to St. Joseph this morning to visit over Sunday with her son, Ora Bratcher, and family. She will also meet another son, Gene, who was recently discharged from the army at Camp Doniphan. They will return to Maryville tomorrow night.

No "War Profits" Allowed.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The food administration declares that it will make war on retailers who exact excessive profits and adds that state administrators are asked to make investigation and round up the retailers who extort on necessities.

FARMERS MADE GOOD

WHITE CLOUD RESIDENTS VOL-
UNTARILY GAVE $1,000.

NOT A SINGLE REFUSAL

Doubled Their Quota of $500 in a Few Hours—Set Record That Will be Hard to Beat.

The farmers of White Cloud township got into the game yesterday when solicitors for the Y. M. C. A. fund started a drive there and voluntarily subscribed nearly $1,000, nearly double the township's quota of $500. White Cloud is, almost exclusively a farmer's township. There is no town in it except Arkoe in the extreme northeast corner, and the subscriptions from that township are therefore wholly farmers' subscriptions.

The drive was made with five cars, beginning at the north end of the township and going through to the south end. S. G. Gilliam, county chairman, was in the car that started in on the road going south just west of Arkoe. The car started from that point at about 10 o'clock and just at dark had completed the part of the territory allotted to it. This committee took the farm houses just as they came to them, in some instances not even knowing who lived at the places they stopped, so that there was no selecting of men. Not a single person refused to give and it was not necessary to argue the question with a single person. Without a single exception, as soon as they were told the object of the visit, they answered, "Yes, we want to do our part."

The results in this township should be a source of great satisfaction to the farmers of this county. It was probably more completely canvassed than any township in the county and it shows what the farmers are willing to do if properly approached. It is doubted if another soliciting committee in the state of Missouri, or any other state, can, after a hard day's soliciting, report that not one single person refused to give.

As before stated, that is an exclusive farmer township and to all indications is going to be entitled to be the flag-bearer of all the townships of Nodaway county, measured by the amount given in proportion to its population and quota.

NORMAL MAN IS SECRETARY

C. Edwila Wells, Faculty Member,
Chosen on Library Board of State Teachers' Association.

For the first time in the history of the Missouri State Teachers' Association, a woman was nominated for president for the ensuing year. Miss Tillie C. Geeks of St. Louis was recommended for the office by the nominating committee at the meeting in Kansas City. The report of the committee was unanimous.

Other nominations made by the committee are: First vice-president, J. M. Wood, Columbia; second vice-president, W. H. Ziegel, Kirksville; third vice-president, Louis Theilman, New Madrid. The term of the treasurer-secretary, E. M. Carter of Columbia, does not expire this year.

St. Louis was chosen as the place for next year's meeting.

At the meeting of the Library Section of the Association, Dr. A. E. Bostwick, St. Louis public librarian, was elected chairman, and C. E. Wells of the Maryville Normal School, secretary of the organization.

CURTAIN ON ELECTRIC SIGNS.

Government Fuel Order Forbids Operation Before or After Certain Hours.

In accordance with an order from the national fuel administration all street electric signs on stores, theatres and other places of business will be limited to the hours for lighting, being turned on between the hours of "half an hour after sunset and 11 o'clock. The order will hardly affect the operation of some twelve or fourteen signs in this city, the light not being used to any great extent before or after these hours.

Len Jordan and Jim Strickler of Skidmore were among the out-of-town visitors in Maryville today.

James Carpenter has returned from a few days business trip to Red Oak, Malvern, Villisca and Shenandoah, Ia.

YOUNG PEOPLE IN PAGEANT

"The Church in Action," Will be Given in Costume at Presbyterian Church Tomorrow Night.

The pageant to be given at the Presbyterian church tomorrow night, "The Church in Action," will be quite an elaborate affair in which more than twenty-five young people will take part. The pageant, which is given under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of the church is designed to show in comprehensive form the work of the church and its different working branches. It will be given in costume and special music will be a feature of the presentation.

The young people have been trained for the event by Miss Lucie Davis and at rehearsals gave evidence that a splendid interpretation will be given.

HIGHWAYS NEEDED

MUST PROVIDE ADDED MEANS OF
FREIGHT TRANSPORTATION.

WAR HAS SHOWN NEED

Provision Must be Made for Quick
Deliveries to Trade Centers—
Means Hard Surfaced Roads.

That the use of our highways for transportation of freight would go a long way toward solving the problems caused by excessive demands due to war preparations is the opinion of Dean E. J. McCaustland of the University of Missouri. Dean McCaustland has made an extensive study of highway problems and has given particular attention to Missouri's needs.

"It should be quickly recognized that the present solution for the relief of freight congestion may lie in a more general use of highways for heavy transportation," Mr. McCaustland said. "Already, in the older states where manufacturing and industrial establishments are producing large outputs, fleets of motor trucks are in use for quick delivery of the finished product. Missouri is an agricultural state, and probably for all time to come the highway traffic will be drawn largely from the farm, the orchard, and the dairy. Provisions must be made, therefore, for lines of transportation that will make it possible for the products of these industries to be delivered promptly to the centers of trade so that there may be no waste due to deterioration of products or loss due to inability to reach the market at the time of best prices."

"Much has been written and printed in the past on this problem but at no time in the history of the state has there been so remarkable a demonstration of the utility and supreme necessity of passable roads as we are now having worked out before us. Fortunately, in our State Highway Department, and based on Federal and State laws, we have begun an organization that will promote and develop construction work in an orderly and satisfactory manner. It is not too much to believe that in the near future every agricultural product in the state may be brought within a reasonable distance of a passable highway that shall be open for business every day in the year."

No More Volunteers.

Washington, Nov. 17. — Voluntary enlistments will cease for men between the ages of twentyone and thirty-one on December 15, Provost Marshal General Crowder announced today. Men can enlist in the navy marines by producing evidence that the numbers they hold are so high a snout to be liable for the second draft.

Embassy at Washington Unable to Se-

Kerensky Escapes Again.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The Russian embassy is making strenuous efforts to get accurate information from Petrograd concerning the situation, but all reports are days old and the question of control is still in doubt, although it is learned that Kerensky is receiving support from loyal troops.

London, Nov. 17.—Premier Kerensky has escaped the second time, is the report this morning contained in dispatches from Petrograd and which also indicate that the Bolsheviks have also won the upper hand over a large part of Kerensky's forces, forcing the premier to retreat from Petrograd. The advice says that both sides lost heavily in the fighting, which has been most fierce in and about Petrograd, and also at Tsarko Selo.

Stockholm, Nov. 16.—Considering the Russian situation hopeless from the standpoint of military usefulness, the American and Entente ministers here have decided to cease all shipments of machinery, goods and other civil supplies from England and America to Russia via Sweden, unless their governments order otherwise.

Thousands of tons of shipments are thus halted. The drastic character and suddenness of this decision prove how helpless the ministers consider the situation. They fear that any supplies sent now would be buried by irresponsible revolutionists or fall into the Germans' hands en route through Finland.

10,000 SHELLS USED IN RAID

But the Germans Were Unable to Penetrate Beyond the First American Lines.

With American Forces in France, Nov. 17. — Between eight and ten thousand shells have been dropped into the American section trenches that were raided by the Germans a few weeks ago in the raid that had been planned for months in advance. The Americans fought splendidly with machine like precision of trained fighters and the Germans were unable to penetrate beyond the first line. The names of many officers have been mentioned for bravery. The sector is now quiet, but raids are of nightly occurrence by one party or the other.

BOMB CAUSES A NEAR PANIC

Chicago Auditorium Audience Had A
Big Scare — Police Hunt for Three Men Believed Germans.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Scores of federal agents and detectives are searching today for clues to the person or persons who placed the bomb in the Auditorium theatre last night, causing a panic among the audience. The police are after three men who are suspected to be German agents, or who were trying to frighten the audience. The panic was averted by the quick work of conductor Campanini who hurriedly brought Mme. Galli Carci before the audience to lead in singing the national anthem.

Our friend, the Tribune, almost let this year slip by without a contest.

Maryville is putting on metropolitan airs. She is to have a coal administrator just like the big burghs.

Those militant suffs who insist on picketing the white house, and engaging in hunger strikes and clothes strikes, will make a good auxiliary for the I. W. W's.

If the big ones in England and France could just get along a few weeks without a cabinet upheaval it would help mightily. Russia is furnishing enough political discord for all.

The weather man is doing all he can just now to relieve the coal situation. Let us hope this fine weather continues until the coal miners and the coal administrators get their differences composed and our coal bins filled.

Germany has one very important army which has been to some extent overlooked. In addition to the regular field armies, the submarine fleets, aeroplane squad, and her army of spies scattered throughout the world, there is a great army of liars. This latter army does not go armed with guns and does not kill men, but by the insidious spread of false information, seeks to kill nations and "soften" the armies of the allies so that they may be the more easily defeated. It has operated in Russia effectively; it has had success in Italy and its influence is not without force in our own country. It is a dangerous, powerful army built on conscienceless lines that pleads, promises and pledges without regard to truth or fulfillment. It furnishes a sort of verbal cocaine that weakens the courage, deadens the national spirit, and fills the individual with wild-eyed delusions.

The army of infantry, artillery and fliers may not reach us but the army of liars is mighty and is spread throughout the world.

MEETING THE PRESSURE.

Men and women who stay at home who are ineligible for field war service, are discovering that the demands on their time and money are not inconsiderable. Indeed they are learning that war is the first business in which we are engaged today and that to it must be given first attention.

At a meeting in Kansas City Thursday night one business man said, "I worked through a campaign to raise money for the Y. M. C. A., then came the first Liberty Loan and I worked through that, then the Red Cross campaign and I spent two weeks on that job, then the second Liberty Loan and I am just through with that. Now they come and set another job, the camp recreation fund, and I am expected to jump into that. My own business has gone to pot and my desk has dust on it. I feel like I would like to have a little time and attend to these affairs."

It is hard for us to understand that the main business of the United States now is war. That it will continue to be our main business until it is over. That the way to get it over is to give it the best we have, jump into it with both feet and put it through. These things are not going to let us alone and we can't escape even if we wanted to.

MANY ARE BUYING NEW CARS

There Is Plenty of Money in Circulation and the Country Is in a Prosperous Condition.

It is almost impossible to keep a record of the new automobiles that are being brought to Maryville. Maryville people are buying new cars because they want them and because they have the money to pay for them. There was never a time when Maryville people were more prosperous, or when money was more plentiful.

The record amount of deposits in the four Maryville banks is the best evidence that money is more plentiful than ever before. Merchants will tell you that money was never so plentiful, for people generally are paying cash for their groceries, meats, dry goods, shoes, clothing and everything else needed. The credit system is about a thing of the past. And no wonder people can buy cars and enjoy other luxuries.

IS SAM ALIVE?

Tell me not that I'm a grumbler,
Or that you will make my eagle scream.
Or that you'll make me humbler,
A whole lot more than what I seem.
If fight I must, I'll fight my darndest,
Doubt it not, you Dutch galoot,
For I itch for one good wallop
At your ugly Dutchman's snoot.
You "gest" darnst rile up my dander,
You limburg smelin' son-of-a-gun,
And, by heck, my dad's a gander,
If this blamed yank don't have some fun.

Any ay you want to tussle,
You can bet will suit me "gest";
But you'll find behind my muscle
A dad-blamed, heavy, horny fist.
If you want her rough and tumble,
I'll roll my sleeves and wade right in.
But I'll warn you, I ain't Belgium,
And I'll wallop you like sin.
"Dog my cats!" if I ain't itchin'
To punch that homely face awhile,
To show Cousin John and Sister Francee
Their Uncle Samuel has some style.

FINANCING ROADS

AVOID LONG TERM BONDS, SAYS
WELL KNOWN EXPERT.

'PAY FOR A DEAD HORSE'

They Would be at the Limit of Second Life by Time Bonds Were Matured—Needs Careful Study.

One of the most disturbing features in connection with the present day road propaganda is the almost universal custom of attempting to finance the projects by long-term bonds. Many writers have called attention to the danger involved in the combination of long-term bonds and short-lived highways, according to Dean E. J. McCaustland of the University of Missouri. Cases are on record where money received from forty or fifty year bond issues have been expended in highway construction that could not have a maximum life of more than ten years. Recent reports from a large southern state show that nearly 60 per cent of the bonds that have been issued in that state for highway work have a term of forty years. It is clear that in such cases the roads constructed will be worn out, rebuilt, and probably at the limit of second life by the time the bonds have matured. It will be the ancient story repeated, "paying for a dead horse."

There is great need of more careful study of methods of highway financing, the Missouri engineering expert urges. The problem is distinct from that of financing an industrial plant or railroad project. There is no question of profits, and ordinary precautions are likely to be ignored. The tendency to saddle future generations with the full expense of public improvements is one that should be sharply curbed. To "pay as we go" is not to be interpreted as to require present payment for improvement that will serve a future generation. It should be held, however, to mean full payment for present service, and to expect from the next generation neither more nor less. It must not be forgotten that our children will have their own financial burdens, in their time, even as we now have ours.

A 10-cent cut of "chawin'" or a tin of the "makin's" remain the same as before, the dealer paying the one or two cents required. Prices remain practically the same as before the provisions of the war tax went into effect. One moving picture house proprietor in Independence dence says he fills his house every night and could afford to pay the penny or two out of the fund, and thus did away with the annoyance of asking every patron for the pennies. He declared it simplified matters and was the more satisfactory. Ten-cent cigars sell for ten cents, five-cent cigars are still five cents. In the cafes and drink emporiums the same rule applies. What's the matter with Missouri?

THE GOVERNMENT DECIDED

This Wholesaler Was Holding Goods for "War Profits," but Plans Were Interfered With.

The Great Bend, Kans., Tribune heard the other day of a man who visited a certain Kansas wholesale house and wanted to sell it a half car load of beans. He was given a price which he thought was too low and he asked a little more. "We have three car loads of beans on hand now," said the manager of the wholesale house. The man then asked the wholesaler to sell him half a car load to make a full car so that he could take it back east and get a better price. "No," the manager replied, "we are holding these for the higher price, and don't care to dispose of them now." The stranger, who was dressed plainly, then opened his coat and showed a federal badge, and said, "Well, you sell those beans right now." Send one car to Camp Funston, one to Fort Sill," and gave further instructions about the third car. Then he added, "The government will decide what price you are to get."

Cleared $84.14 at Box Supper.

$84.14 was the amount cleared last night at the box supper at the Diamond Branch school, taught by Miss Margaret Heffern. A clever program of dialogues, songs, and recitations was put on by the teacher and pupils. The box of candy for the most popular young lady brought $18, and went to Miss Heffern. Will Sawyers of Ravenwood acted as auctioneer.

Mrs. J. F. Montgomery and daughter, Miss Ruth, Mrs. J. T. Linville and Mrs. M. Rittenour drove to Burlington Junction today to attend the funeral services of Stanley Evans.

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR INCREASED LIVESTOCK.

"The outlook for increased livestock production was never better," said Dean F. B. Mumford of the University of Missouri College of Agriculture in addressing the Missouri

Livestock Producers' Association recently. In support of this opinion Dean Mumford cited figures which show that there has been a depletion of more than 115,000,000 head in the livestock supply of the world since the war began. The decrease in the United States has been alarming. During the three year pre-war period 86.3 per cent of the hog population of the United States was slaughtered. During the three years of war 96 per cent was slaughtered. The people of this country are consuming more pork, exporting more and producing less than they did in the pre-war period. Conclusions drawn from the available statistics are: (1) The demand for pork will become greater as the war continues, and the farmer is consequently justified in increasing his livestock population; (2) If peace should come within the next few months it will not lessen the demand, because of the depleted supply and because people will eat more in peace than in war time.

Rev. J. T. Alsuh of New Hampton, Mo., will conduct a revival meeting at

Most of the members of the club are doing war relief work of some kind, either in the club itself or in the Red Cross chapter, and are most heartily interested in it. It was mainly through the efforts of its members that the work was first introduced in Maryville.

THAT HORRID BLACK SPLASH

Ravenwood Folk are Proud of the Record They Have Made Since the War—Facts Back It Up.

Ravenwood folks are proud of the record that has been made since the war began and are always in the lead when it comes to putting over any kind of campaign for war funds, Red Cross aid and other forms of patriotism.

Commenting on the publicity given the county's record by the Y. M. C. A. committee, Ravenwood wants the public to know a few things. Here they are as given in the Ravenwood Gazette:

"The chairman of the organization perfected to handle the Red Cross campaign in Nodaway county, S. G. (Sam) Gilliam, has been sending out a circular during this week that has a horrible black 'splash' to indicate the county's record for loyalty in contributing to the various funds that have been raised to support the war. Now Ravenwood claims a bright spot in that ugly blot, for the iron clad reason that we have done our share and more in every effort that has been before us.

Facts back up our contentions just as well as our inclinations, so we proudly announce that $4,450 was raised for the first Liberty Loan, over $25,000 for the second Liberty Loan, and about $12 over our quota in the Red Cross fund, or about $1,000.

For the first Liberty Loan there were thirty-five subscribers, and for the second, 76 subscribers.

Ravenwood has furnished more volunteers for the navy than any other town of its size in the United States, and also has its share of volunteers in the army, not to mention the great number who are serving the colors after being drafted.

Another indication of our loyalty, we have the only Navy League in the county, and very few if any towns in the state the size of Ravenwood have such an organization.

Still another. We are truly proud of our Red Cross society, thirty members strong. Like the Navy League, it is doing valiant service for the cause in which our country is fighting.

And lest our enterprising chairman overlook the good work done in this part of the county, Harmony has a Red Cross society of twenty-three members, and Orrsburg also has a group of several members doing that work.

In the Y. M. C. A. "drive" Wednesday afternoon, there was raised at least $50 over our quota, or about $800. Much credit is due the workers for the splendid work done, and prompt and accurate accounting. They worked on the average about five hours.

There is absolutely no cause for complaint about Jackson township lending support in making a good record for Nodaway county. We have surely done our share.

In this connection we give the names of our men who are serving the colors in the various branches:

Navy Volunteers—Chester Peterson, Roy Bradley, Raymond Comer, Don Tebow, Harold Tebow, Norvil Lyle, Roy Graf, Gustaf Anderson, Albin Anderson, Thad Danford, Cyrus Thompson and C. E. Leary. The latter's parents recently moved here from Iowa.

Army Volunteers—Frank Tebow, Emmet Sturms, Obed Oglesby, John Van Houten, John A. Ball and Velma Burns.

Drafted Men—Extra McMullin, Roy Teaney, W. Ed Walker, Lee Powell, Alvey Roseler, John McCann, Harry Fryar and Arthur Baysinger.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Staples and W. H. Cluster are among the Burlington Junction people in Maryville today.

Watch How The Income Tax Affects YOU

The bachelor or maiden bringing down $35 a week income will, from an annual net total of $1,820, have to pay the tax on the basis of $1,000 being exempt. This leaves $820 on which $16.40 will have to be turned over to the government as its 2 per cent on the excess over $1,000.

Married people must make a return to the collector of internal revenue in their district, but there is no tax liability to this class, as the exemption limit for them is $2,000.

The single person owning property on which more than $820 is paid as interest, water rents, etc., will come under the exempt ruling, but must make due report to the internal revenue collector. Money spent for repairs on rented property may also be included in the exemption claims, as may money contributed to certain charities.

In reporting the gross incomes of either married or single persons, any property acquired by gift, bequest or descent may be excluded, but the income from such property should be included as income.

Easter offerings and fees received by clergymen for funerals, marriages, baptisms, masses, etc., are regarded as income; Christmas gifts, however, are not.

Your returns must be filed on or before March 1 and must cover the entire preceding calendar year. All returns must be made under oath or affirmation.

STATE TAX VALUES GO HIGH

Assessors Reports Indicate Totals Will Reach 6 Billions as Compared with Last Year.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 17.—Early reports of county assessors indicate the total tax valuation for the state next year will run close to $6,000,000, as compared with less than $2,000,000 valuation this year.

L. O. Wells, St. Francois county, Missouri's first assessor to complete his assessment for next year's taxes, reported to the state tax commission a total valuation of real and personal property, exclusive of railroad and public service corporations, amounting to $43,228,104, as compared with this year's valuation of $11,825,803.

The new valuation is made on cash value of the property and is in accordance with instructions from the tax commission.

SAVE CANDY HERE; SEND TO SOLDIERS.

Save the sugar and candy here, yes, but by all means send candy to the boys in France and in our own camps, urges Miss Louise Stanley of the University of Missouri. Hard candies ship best, we are told, and we immediately prepared by melting sugar with constant stirring until there are no lumps. When melted, stir in crushed nuts. Pour out on buttered flat surface, flatten out and mark into squares before it cools. Syrup may be substituted for the sugar, but it is more difficult in this case to tell just when the candy is done. In any case the candy should be packed in air tight containers. If these candies are exposed to a moist atmosphere they absorb the water and become sticky on the outside.

Most men like fudge, and fudge can be sent easily, according to Miss Stanley. Cook together 2 1/2 cups sugar, 1/2 cup sorghum molasses and a cup of water. Stir until all of the sugar is dissolved, then cook slowly without stirring until it reaches the soft ball. Keep crystals well wiped off the sides. Pour out on a greased slab adding 2 squares of chocolate and 2 tablespoons of butter—the heat in the syrup is enough to melt these. Cool to the temperature of the room. Beat until it commences to cream, then work in your hands until soft. Add nuts if desired. Pack in well greased paraffined cartons of pasteboard. After closing the ends, seal by dipping in melted paraffin. This cake of fudge should keep moist and creamy, and when opened at the camps or in France can be cut in the desired pieces for serving.

FURLOUGHS FOR DRAFTED

Soldiers at Camp Funston Needed in Harvesting Crops at Home Can Get Short Releases

Camp Funston, Kans., Nov. 17.—Enlisted men here who are needed at home to assist in harvesting crops will be granted furloughs in ten days to two weeks, provided they can show that they are absolutely needed, it was announced here today.

Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, commandant, instructed regimental commanders to grant such furloughs where they are convinced such requests are made in good faith. General Wood, it was announced, obtained permission from the war department to grant such furloughs after he had explained to the departments in Washington that in many cases it is imperative that those at home have assistance in gathering the crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lyons and daughters, Dorothy and Marie, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cummins and Mr. and Mrs. John Messabarger for a few days, before leaving for Denver, Colo., to make their home.

Suffered Several Years. PERUNA MADE ME WELL

Its My Standby
for a Cold.

Mrs. Elizabeth Reuther, 1002 11th St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered several years. I took it for several months, found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold, and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies."

Those who object to liquid medicines can procure Peruna Tablets.
